Background Information

Loretta Jackson-Kelly will be presenting a brief background about herself as the Joint Tribal Liaison and provide an overview/discussion of how the Hualapai experience is relevant to issues that are important to all of the tribes.

Sarah Rinkevich will present her activities as the DOI Federal Tribal Liaison from February through August 2014. The primary focus of coordination with the Tribal Representatives and DOI AMP members during this time period concentrated on the Glen Canyon Dam Adaptive Management Program's Triennial Budget and Work Plan (Fiscal Years 2015-2017). Other activities from February through August of 2014 included Technical Working Group (TWG) and Long-term Experimental Management Program (LTEMP) Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) meetings.
